

825 REWARD.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, living near Piscataway, Prince George's county, Maryland, a negro man named Patrick Smith, about 30 or 32 years of age, of a black complexion—about six feet high. When spoken to, he has a smile on his countenance, and has thin lips. I will give 25 dollars if he is taken out of the State of Maryland, and 20 dollars if taken in the State of Maryland, or District of Columbia. He had on, when he eloped, a roundabout and light cloth pantaloons. He has a wife residing in the city of Washington, and a father likewise, by the name of John Smith. I will give the above reward if he is taken and secured in jail, or delivered to me, at my residence, near Piscataway, Prince George's county Maryland.
